L. LEONI AND D. LEONI (EDS.), Ticonio. Sette regole per la Scrittura, Conifere 2 (Bologna: Dehoniane, 2014, paper €12.50) 136 pp. Indexed. ISBN: 978-88-10-56001-3.

This volume provides an introduction to Tyconius, a 4th-century theologian from Roman Africa, and the text of his Liber regularum, the oldest manual of biblical hermeneutics of the Christian West. The editors' seventeen-page introduction discusses Tyconius' life and works, the Liber regularum, its role in the history of exegesis, its hermeneutical approach and biblical-theological aspect, and Tyconius and Augustine. Then it presents an Italian translation of the seven rules of Tyconius' Liber regularum based on F. C. Burkitt's 1894 critical edition, The Book of Rules of Tyconius: the Lord and his body, the bipartite body of the Lord, the promises and the Law, species and genus, time, recapitulation, and the devil and his body.
